- 1 And again He began to teach by the sea. And a great multitude was gathered to Him, so that He got into a boat and sat in it on the sea; and the whole multitude was on the land facing the sea.
- 2 Then He taught them many things by parables, and said to them in His teaching:
- 3 "Listen! Behold, a sower went out to sow.
- 4 And it happened, as he sowed, that some seed fell by the wayside; and the birds of the air came and devoured it.

- 35 On the same day, when evening had come, He said to them, "Let us cross over to the other side."
- 36 Now when they had left the multitude, they took Him along in the boat as He was. And other little boats were also with Him.
- 37 And a great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was already filling.
- 38 But He was in the stern, asleep on a pillow. And they awoke Him and said to Him, "Teacher, do You not care that we are perishing?"
- 39 Then He arose and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace, be still!" And the wind ceased and there was a great calm.
- 40 But He said to them, "Why are you so fearful? How is it that you have no faith?"
- 41 And they feared exceedingly, and said to one another, "Who can this be, that even the wind and the sea obey Him!"
