- 1 Then the Pharisees and some of the scribes came together to Him, having come from Jerusalem.
- 2 Now when they saw some of His disciples eat bread with defiled, that is, with unwashed hands, they found fault.
- 3 For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash their hands in a special way, holding the tradition of the elders.
- 4 When they come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they wash. And there are many other things which they have received and hold, like the washing of cups, pitchers, copper vessels, and couches.
- 5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked Him, "Why do Your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands?"
- 6 He answered and said to them, "Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written: 'This people honors Me with their lips, But their heart is far from Me.
- 7 And in vain they worship Me, Teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.'
- 8 For laying aside the commandment of God, you hold the tradition of men—the washing of pitchers and cups, and many other such things you do."

- 31 Again, departing from the region of Tyre and Sidon, He came through the midst of the region of Decapolis to the Sea of Galilee.
- 32 Then they brought to Him one who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech, and they begged Him to put His hand on him.
- 33 And He took him aside from the multitude, and put His fingers in his ears, and He spat and touched his tongue.
- 34 Then, looking up to heaven, He sighed, and said to him, “Ephphatha,” that is, “Be opened.”
- 35 Immediately his ears were opened, and the impediment of his tongue was loosed, and he spoke plainly.
- 36 Then He commanded them that they should tell no one; but the more He commanded them, the more widely they proclaimed it.
- 37 And they were astonished beyond measure, saying, “He has done all things well. He makes both the deaf to hear and the mute to speak.”
